LARC - Academic Learning Skills (ALS) Workshops FAQ
These are our policies for every student. No exceptions.

WORKSHOP POLICIES:

Q: When are workshops offered during the quarter?
A: Workshops are offered during the following weeks of each quarter: 2, 3, 4, 6, 7, and 8. Refer to the ALS flyer for a complete schedule. Workshops are held in RH 270 unless stated otherwise.

Q: What if I am late to the workshop?
A: If you arrive more than 10 minutes late, you will not be admitted into the workshop, and you must attend another workshop.

Q: What if the workshop is full when I arrive?
A: Unfortunately, we will ask you to attend another workshop and arrive at least 10 minutes early to secure your seat for any future workshop(s) you wish to attend.

Q: May I RSVP to reserve my seat for the workshop?
A: Yes, please RSVP prior to attending the workshop. However, if you arrive more than 10 minutes late, your seat may be taken by another student with a RSVP. Please arrive at least 10 minutes early to secure your seat. RSVP for a workshop here: https://web.due.uci.edu/larc/signups/

Q: I’m required to attend a workshop. How can I acquire proof that I attended?
A: After attending a workshop, students will receive an official Academic Learning Skills (ALS) worksheet that Peer Educators WILL ONLY SIGN AT A CONSULTATION SESSION. Students must attend a workshop AND a Consultation Session to obtain proof of workshop attendance.

Q: How do I make an appointment for a consultation?
A: You can make an appointment for consultation here: https://appointments.due.uci.edu/

Q: What do I do if I can’t attend a required workshop?
A: Contact your academic counselor to ask if a consultation will be sufficient to meet your requirement.
